

New Study Coming in July:

Get ready, Palm City, for something new and different.

And by “new and different” I mean old and awesome. Starting next month, I (David Mauldin) will be leading a study called Classics of Christian Spirituality. Each week participants will read an excerpt (20-25 pages) from one of the enduring works of the faith. Each of these works expresses the genius and faith of a spiritual giant. Each week we will come together to discuss what we have read. I will introduce the author and explain the book. We will talk about how what we have read helps us follow Jesus today.

It's going to be like a party with some of the wisest, most passionate Christians throughout history. Imagine learning about prayer from John Calvin and E. M. Bounds. Imagine listening to Saint Augustine and Jonathan Edwards describe how God brought them to faith in Jesus Christ. Kick back as Leo Tolstoy spins a yarn about a simple man who learns how to find Jesus in everyday life.

I aim to make this enjoyable and thought-provoking. Hopefully, it will deepen your faith. You do not need to be a believer to participate, however. Everyone is welcome. In fact, invite your friends. Part of the fun of something like this is the fellowship. You can meet new people, long-dead authors, and living neighbors.

Here are the answers to questions you are probably asking right now:

Pastor David, when will this new study be? I'm ready to go now, now, NOW!

I know, right? I hope to start in late July. The weekly gatherings will be on Wednesday evenings, probably from 5:30 to 6:30. Most people will be off work. The sun will still be up. I am going to be away the last two weeks of June, and I have a lot of work to do to get this ready. Next month's newsletter will have the exact details.

Important Bible Study Announcement

Thursday morning's Men's Bible Study and Women's Bible Study will not be meeting June, July or August. Both groups will resume meeting in September.

In Memory

Harry Wayne Huizenga Sr.
December 29, 1937 – March 22, 2018

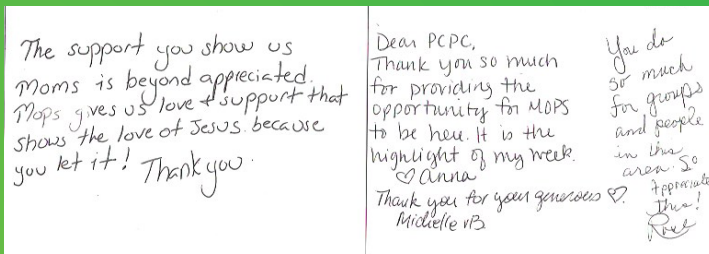

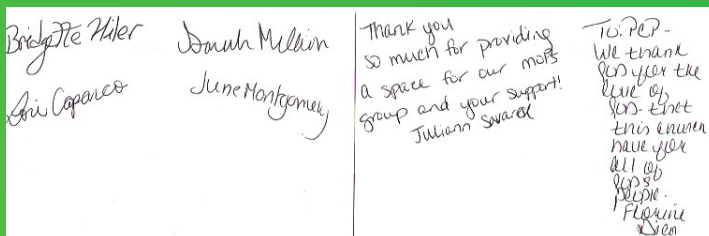

Wayne Huizenga was an affiliate member of our church and friend of many in our community. We continue to benefit from his generosity and to be grateful for it. He and wife Marti donated the Huizenga Family Life Center to our church and for the good of our community. This congregation will be forever grateful for the extraordinary generosity and exceptional spirit of love exhibited by this contribution. Wayne and Marti quietly gave to many causes throughout South Florida including the Boys and Girls Club of Palm City and the Children's Museum of the Treasure Coast.

Everyone to whom much was given, of him much will be required.

FLPP#13 Reflections

"Awesome time on the mountain top with God - and my answer to Him was - Here I am Lord - use me."

—Florine Blackshear (FLPP#12)

"FLPP#13 was an experience of grace and gratitude; through songs of praise, prayer and communion, my relationship with our Lord and Savior was magnified and I learned how to embrace the vision and the dream that He has placed in my heart."

— Lauren Gragg (FLPP#13)

"This experience brought me to a time of listening, learning, and asking for God's leading in my life. The seclusion of the event was eye opening to me and I could relate to the scripture in Psalm 46:10--Be still and know that I am God."

— Susan Rosseau (FLPP#13)

"Believe me when I say that I was totally reticent about going to the Florida Pilgrimage. But what happened to me was truly a spiritual transformation. It gave me the opportunity to really stop and think about Jesus and His importance in my life. I feel like I know the direction I need to take and the Pilgrimage taught me how to go in that direction. In addition, I have a whole new family of brothers and sisters in Christ that I didn't have before. It is a 'stop' in life I feel every Christian should take."

— Janet Sallman (FLPP#13)

ANGEL OF THE MONTH

by Amy Kittchell

The angel we want to recognize this month does a lot more in the background to prepare music for Sunday mornings than most know. Aside from taking time to prepare his bass guitar part each week, when the Cornerstone Horns (middle and high school musicians) join our praise band for the 9:30 service, he arranges music for each of them. Not only is it laid out for their particular instrument but the individual musician's current skill level. At times there have been up to 18 players invited to join us. That means a lot of parts to write and blend.

Time surely equals love. He loves music and uses his God-given talents to help us bring a distinctive sound and feel to our worship services. He does all of this in his "spare" time. Somehow he finds a way to carve a bit out for Cornerstone, Cornerstone Horns, Brass Choir, various ensembles, and the individual requests for offertory features. He also helps us round up musicians for those unique ensembles and find substitutes when a regular team member is out for the week. He has a fantastic network to reach out to and is always so gracious when asked to use it.

Outside of his many contributions here and the numerous other professional groups where he is an active member, he has a special heart for helping his students and other young musicians gain experience and grow through competitions and various opportunities to ply their craft that they might not have access to otherwise. He is their champion.

The person we want to put a special spotlight on this month is the one and only Al Hager. Thank you, Al, for giving your time and talent so generously.

This fall we are looking into the possibility of launching Upward Sports Basketball at PCPC within our Children's Ministry. Upward Sports athletes experience the 360 Progression, which is a uniquely designed sports experience that develops the total athlete mentally, athletically, spiritually, and socially. It is modeled in Luke 2:52 – "And Jesus grew in wisdom and stature, and in favor with God and man." The 360 Progression helps young athletes discover and develop the skills they need to perform both on and off the field or court. It also creates individuals of strong character, confidence, and faith. If you would be interested in helping us launch this outreach ministry by being part of our planning team please let us know! We are looking for help with coaching, advertising, administrative tasks, and discipleship. Contact Sarah Curtis at sarah@palmcitypres.org for more information or to find out how you can get involved!

VBS Drama Camp

Be In The Know

ART IS IN is returning to PCPC to put on another fabulous VBS Drama Camp with our children this June! This year's production is called "2 Tickets To Hollywood." Camp participants will put on a free performance for the public on Friday, June 22nd at 6:30 p.m. in the Huizenga Family Life Center.

What is "2 Tickets To Hollywood" about? It's 1938, and sisters Mary Jane and Molly Mortimer leave their hometown in Mapleton, Illinois for a trip to Hollywood. But when a chance encounter with famed Hollywood actor James Warren leads to a chance for a role in a movie, the girls believe they've gotten a lucky break. Before long, however, the studio begins pressuring them to change their names, to tell a made-up story about their background, and to abandon their hometown roots. Uncomfortable, the sisters learn that trusting God to direct their path is the true route to happiness and that even the glitter of Hollywood can't compete with Jesus.

Date: June 18 - June 22

Cost: $125.00 for the week (All participants receive a T-shirt.

Snacks are included; please bring lunch.)

Space is limited; register as soon as possible.

Registration forms are available in the church office, Narthex, and Huizenga Family Life Center lobby.

Thank you can be said quietly, or loudly with great conviction!

Charlie and I are offering just that. Thank you to Pastor David, the Prayer Team, and the many prayer warriors of PCPC. We have asked many times for your prayers for our granddaughter Sophia Bella Rosseau who was born January 8, 2018 at Boston Children's Hospital with congenital heart defects. Sophie underwent open heart surgery at 16 hours old and has faced many hurdles along the way in her recovery. Charles and Mary have been amazing parents, and during their long stay in Boston they maintained a strong faith that Sophie was and is in God's hands. Sophie is doing well and is now four months old. This last procedure on April 3 in Tampa was very successful. Our thank you comes from our hearts and knowing that PCPC is a church family who cares. Every Sunday people have asked, "HOW'S OUR BABY DOING?." That speaks volumes to the care and love we have felt from you. To God be the glory for all He has done! -Charlie and Susan Rosseau

The Supreme Importance Of Prayer

-Susan Rosseau

Have you ever felt that your prayer life is not effective? Have you felt that you do not feel close to God when you pray? You are not alone! The Deacon Prayer Team would like to encourage and teach you more about prayer and praying. The members of the newly formed Deacon Prayer Team are Lynn Church (Team Leader), Trudy Johnson, Florine Blackshear, Judy McDonald, and Susan Rosseau.

This is not to be confused with our Daily Prayer Team that has a person at our church praying every day for certain requests from our membership. Those members are Polly Forestier, LaBarbara Chenault, Phyl Sullivan, and Florine Blackshear.

We want to help you learn more about prayer through written suggestions, articles on prayer, possibly a quarterly prayer meeting, a prayer breakfast, and other means of communicating the importance of prayer.

C.H. Spurgeon said, "The heart of prayer is the prayer of the heart." It does not consist of simply words, gestures, or forms of eloquence. "Prayer is the address of a poor creature on earth to a great Creator and loving Father in Heaven." We all need instruction about prayer, its meaning, its promises, its method and value. How exciting to be taught by Jesus—look up Romans 8:26-27. It is not only important that Christians pray; it is of supreme importance.

Your introduction to the Deacon Prayer Team will be the first Sunday in June. Team members will be at the doors greeting you and giving you a bookmark to use. We will be doing this periodically as a way to encourage you to pray for areas in your lives. We have selected the theme for June to be: Pray For Your Enemies—Matthew 5:44-47. We want to spread the word that PCPC is a praying church. We believe that prayer is the very life of our church and that it is the life of the church's individual members, of our worship, and of our varied activities. We invite you to join us in being more prayerful!

Parish Nurses

-David Mauldin

Congratulations are in order. Our hard-working Parish Nurses have been honored by Nightingale Services as Nurses of the Year. This is the second time they have been so honored. Our Parish Nurses visit the sick, provide comfort and guidance, and keep our staff informed of needs. Many people have expressed to me how grateful they are for the Christian love they have received from our Parish Nurses. Because of travel schedules and other reasons, our Parish Nurses will not be operating as usual during June, July, and August; but they may be available in special cases. Thank you and congratulations to our Parish Nurses!

Shepherd Breakfast

On Saturday, May 12, forty-two women and men came together to celebrate the ministry of our Shepherd Program and Parish Nurses. A homemade breakfast was served to the guests. It was a time of recognizing our retired, new, and currently serving Shepherds. Our six Parish Nurses were recognized for the level of commitment and care they provide to our PCPC family. Pastor David addressed the group with an exhortation and encouragement to continue serving our people and being willing to reach out to all who attend our church. There was a time of questions and concerns from the Shepherds. An explanation of the HIPA laws on confidentiality was given by Pat Stuart. Mrs. Enid Tatje was recognized as the woman who had the vision to begin the Shepherd Program approximately twenty-eight years ago. The Shepherd Program continues to be an integral part of the life of our church and a meaningful way to stay connected with our members. The event was coordinated by Shepherd Coordinator, Susan Rosseau, and Deacon Moderator, Carole Peterson.

Who are these giants of the faith and what books will we be reading?

Athanasius was arguably the most courageous and stubborn defender of truth in the history of the church. When the church teetered on the brink of falling into error about the most important thing—who Jesus is—he rallied the faithful. His little book On the Incarnation has been treasured and read for over 1,700 years.

Augustine probably did more to shape Christian thought than anyone since the apostles. He wrote the first introspective autobiography in history, his famous Confessions. In it he tells how God was there all his life, leading him to faith in Jesus Christ.

Julian of Norwich was a theologian and mystic who describes a vision God gave her in her famous book, Revelations of Divine Love. It is the first book written in English by a woman.

John Calvin, the 16th-century Reformer, was one of the most influential theologians in history. Presbyterians trace our roots back to him. From his masterpiece, Institutes of the Christian Religion, we will learn about faith and prayer, with bonus material about the Lord's Supper!

Blaise Pascal had a fiery, overwhelming experience of God. He combined this passion with the reason of a mathematician to persuade people of the truth of the gospel. His Pensées ("Thoughts") is actually a journal of notes for a book he never wrote.

Jonathan Edwards has been called the greatest theologian America has yet produced. He was in love with the beauty of God. We will read an excerpt from his memoirs.

Leo Tolstoy stands tall among the world's best fiction writers. This 19th-century Russian author often reflected on themes of faith. We will read his short story "Where Love Is, There is God."

Fyodor Dostoevsky, another 19th century Russian, wrote the most brilliant novel ever. The Brothers Karamazov is a mystery story and apologetic masterpiece rolled into one. We will read the oft-reprinted chapter, "The Grand Inquisitor."

E. M. Bounds, a 19th-century American pastor, wrote books on prayer that remain popular today. We will learn about prayer from this accomplished teacher.

How exciting is this?!

Very. I like it because this sort of thing hasn't been done much. It provides an opportunity to come together around Christian writings that have spoken with power to every generation since they were written. You can grow in your faith (or be challenged in your unbelief). And, you may find a writer or book that will prove formative for you.

Stay tuned for more information about this new study, Classics of Christian Spirituality.

How long will the study last?

Ten fabulous weeks.

How will we get the excerpts to read? Do we need to buy some books?

I am preparing a spiral-bound book for the study. All the works are in the public domain. The book will include an introduction to each week's reading, the excerpt, and study questions. The text will have extra-wide margins for taking notes. I am preparing the introductions and the study questions. A book will be given to each participant. There will be a modest suggested donation to cover the cost of producing the books.

How much does the study cost?

Money: Nothing. It's free. There will be a suggested donation to cover the cost of the book you will receive, but this is optional.

Time: You should spend the time to read the excerpt each week then come to the gathering ready to discuss it. So, maybe a couple of hours per week.

How do I sign up?

You will need to sign up through the church office and get a book. Next month's newsletter will give details about how to do that. We want to have the books ready well before the start of the study. I also need to know how many are participating in order to facilitate discussion.

PCPC Kids Monthly Overview For June

- Sarah Curtis

Preschool Focus

Have you ever used a compass to show you which way to go? They're great for helping you on a hike, but not as great when we're trying to figure out which way to go in life. We need the Bible for that. This month in our preschool class, we're going to start our ride through the "Bikes and Trikes" theme as we teach our preschoolers that the Bible tells us which way to go. How wonderful would it be if our preschoolers grew up using the Bible as their compass as they ride through life!

So, get geared up to hop on your bike or trike so you can spend the next two months with your preschoolers learning that the Bible tells me which way to go.

Week 1: The Bible Shows the Way (Psalm 119:105)

Week 2: Love One Another (John 13:34-35)

Week 3: I Can Pray to God (Jeremiah 29:12)

Week 4: I Can Share My Stuff (Acts 2:45)

Bottom Line:
The Bible tells me which way to go.

BIKES & TRIKES

Memory Verse:
"Show me the right path, O Lord;
point out the road for me to follow."

CONFIDENCE
LIVING LIKE
YOU BELIEVE
WHAT GOD
SAYS IS TRUE

Elementary Focus

God is stronger than anyone and He can do things that would be impossible for you or me. He has proved this throughout history, but nowhere is this more evident than in the life, death, and resurrection of Jesus. Because of what Jesus has done, we can have confidence. And when you put your faith in Jesus, you can live fully alive.

We will be learning how to put our confidence in that truth throughout the whole month of June in our elementary environment. Here is the breakdown of stories and scripture references to help us navigate through this biblical truth.

Week 1: God can do the impossible. Elijah and the Prophets of Baal (1 Kings 18)

Week 2: God is stronger than anyone. The story of Samson (Judges 13-16)

Week 3: God can use you no matter what. The story of Gideon (Judges 6-8)

Week 4: Jesus matters most. Jesus is the Cornerstone (Ephesians 2:20-22a)

MEMORY VERSE: "I REMAIN CONFIDENT OF THIS: I WILL SEE THE GOODNESS OF THE LORD IN THE LAND OF THE LIVING." PSALM 27:13, NIV

I would like to ask you to consider keeping our team as well as the people of Puerto Rico in your prayers, asking God to do good things through us in His name. We will also be trying to raise funds for our students as well as building/repair projects there in Puerto Rico. *Please consider how you might help in those fundraisers as they are announced. These mission trips are never just about those who are sent, but often and even more so, they are about those who do the sending. Thank you for your participation in this trip which is designed to do good in Puerto Rico, but will obviously also present the opportunity for God to work within our own students.
