A Praying Church

By David C. Mauldin

E. M. Bounds inspires me to pray, but not the way he did. Bounds is a fascinating figure. He grew up in Missouri during the mid-19th century but spent his teens digging for gold in California. He did not strike it rich, so he returned to Missouri and studied law. At age 19 he became the youngest lawyer in the state. God, however, had other plans. God called Bounds to preach, so he closed his law office, went to seminary, and became a pastor.

I respect Bounds because he suffered greatly. When the Civil War broke out, he wanted to ride it out without taking sides. He opposed slavery, and his brothers were in the Union Army. But he served a church in the Methodist Episcopal Church South. He was arrested as a Southern sympathizer. He spent a year and a half in Federal prison before he was paroled in a prisoner exchange. Upon release, he was not allowed to take an oath of loyalty to the Union; instead, he was banished from his home state. He traveled south to Mississippi, where he joined a Missouri battalion of the Confederate Army as a chaplain. He was wounded at the Battle of Franklin and again taken prisoner. After the war, he returned to identify and properly bury the dead.

He later married and raised a family. His first wife died after ten years of marriage. He also lost two children. A son by his first wife died at age 6. A son by his second wife died shortly after his first birthday. These losses devastated Bounds.

Bounds was a man of prayer. He rose every day at 4:00 a.m. and prayed until 7:00 a.m. He wrote 9 books about prayer, and they are still in print today. We will read an excerpt from one of those books for Classics of Christian Spirituality on September 26.

Let's be honest: I am not going to be following his prayer schedule. Maybe you are not. But I am inspired by his firm conviction that prayer changes things. Prayer is power. The Bible vividly describes the power of prayer in the book of the Revelation:

And another angel came and stood at the altar with a golden censer, and he was given much incense to offer with the prayers of all the saints on the golden altar before the throne, and the smoke of the incense, with the prayers of the saints, rose before God from the hand of the angel. Then the angel took the censer and filled it with fire from the altar and threw it on the earth, and there were peals of thunder, rumblings, flashes of lightning, and an earthquake.

(Rev. 8:3-5 ESV)

Do you want to change the world—or just make it through the day? Prayer is power. Many Christians lack power because they are weak in prayer.

At PCPC, we are a praying church. Dedicated volunteers come every weekday to pray in the chapel. Our deacons have a team committed to leading our congregation to pray. Each month they give us a prayer theme for the month. They will also be

Why Does Praying Seem So Hard?

-Susan Rosseau, Deacon Prayer Team

Many Christians feel guilty that prayer is not more of a part of their spiritual lives. The good news is that prayer is not something to be checked off the to-do list! Why? Because prayer is an act of relationship that should be an open and ongoing dialogue. 1 Thes. 5:17 tells us to “pray continuously.” But that is the hard part! To wake up in the morning and say “I will be in a permanent conversation with God today” is one thing—to do it is another. A flourishing prayer life comes from the overflow of a heart totally and fully in love with God.

In searching for articles that I felt would be encouraging to PCPC, I came across the following article written by Jason Farr, courtesy of NewSpring Church.

One of my favorite TV personalities is talk show host Conan O'Brien.

If I told you I was friends with Conan O'Brien, you'd ask, "How often do you get to see him?"

If I answered, "I haven't met him yet, but I've watched his show every day and I've read a lot of articles about him," you'd say I was nuts. We can't know someone or have a real relationship without spending time together.

God wants a relationship with us. It's why He sent Jesus to die for our sins — so we can have a relationship again.

Why do Christians pray? We grow our relationship with God through reading the Bible and prayer. Reading the Bible is how we hear from God, and prayer is how we speak to Him in return. This process of talking to God, listening for His voice and reading His Word is how we spend quality time with our Heavenly Father.

Only reading the Bible doesn't give me a relationship with God. People who don't believe in God have read the Bible. Some atheists can quote the Bible better than some Christians, but they don't have a relationship with God. Prayer is an integral part of gaining a relationship with God, because prayer turns one-way research into two-way communication.

4 Things That Happen When We Pray

1. Closeness (Jeremiah 33:2-3)

Prayer is intimate and personal. When Christians pray to Jesus, sharing with Him on a personal level helps us to trust Him more.

2. Peace of Mind (Philippians 4:7)

We can get bogged down by the negative thoughts in our heads. When we take our worry and doubt to God in prayer, we gain insight to overcome our negative thoughts. When we pray, with thanksgiving and petition, God gives us peace unlike anything we can imagine.

3. Guidance (Romans 8:26)

We don't always know what to pray for when we pray, but God does. Romans 8:26 says, "...the Spirit helps us in our weakness. We do not know what we ought to pray for, but the Spirit himself intercedes for us..." When we humbly seek God, the Holy Spirit expresses in prayer what we can't articulate in words.

4. Healing (James 5:16)

God heals us as we pray for ourselves and each other. Trying to fix our problems ourselves is a fruitless effort, so we take them to the One who can. God created the universe and everything in it. Help is waiting for us if we'll humble ourselves and ask for it.

The Deacon Prayer Team is praying for the people of PCPC, asking that our prayer lives become more meaningful and fulfilling and an active part of our spiritual lives.

ANGEL OF THE MONTH

by Janet Sallman

Here they come, our angel couple of the month! As they walk through the office door, my first reaction is “Uh, Oh! Here comes trouble.” Then peals of laughter ensue. For wherever this couple goes, they radiate much joyousness. But behind that joyousness is a sincere love and dedication to the people that make up PCPC.

Our couple involves themselves in many different aspects of the church. Sometimes they work together, like when they usher and greet people on Sundays, and sometimes they work independently. For instance, she is on the membership team, and he was the moderator of the deacons for three years. They also pull together when special events occur, like when we have a memorial service or in November for the Turkey Trot. When they work the Turkey Trot, they love to zoom those water cups out there so the runners can grab them and zip away.

In addition, they have helped set up communion for many years, and our Mr. Angel has even stepped up to serve communion whenever asked. Funny thing about him, though. You will only find him serving on the right side of the sanctuary. Wonder why? Guess you’ll have to ask him about that!

Well, have you guessed who this wonderful couple is that has blessed our church? The amazing duo of John and Linda Sanders!

Bell Choirs -Joanne Raulin, Director

Ringling bells is a way that all ages can be involved in outreach and worship, and is an excellent way to continue to grow our wonderful music programs here at PCPC. This type of musical ensemble requires teamwork and helps develop a sense of belonging because each person is uniquely necessary for the musical result.

Ringling is also a ministry tool that elevates worship music while providing a visible and engaging way to participate in church life.

We are anticipating a very successful and inspiring season with our two bell choirs here at PCPC and would love to have you join one of our ensembles. Both of our bell choirs are so dedicated and really work hard to make a joyful noise to the Lord. They truly ring with joy!

BELLS OF PRAISE

The Bells of Praise (our adult bell choir) will ring during the traditional services every other month beginning the 3rd Sunday in September. This group has become very professional in its presentations. If you are interested in joining, please call me at 772-286-9958, ext. 111, or email joanne@palmcitypres.org. We rehearse every Thursday from 5:00 to 6:30 p.m. and will welcome you with bells on!

KIDS RING!

Calling all kids who ring, or would like to ring bells and chimes!

The Kids Ring! bell choir is beginning rehearsals Sunday, September 9th at 4:30 p.m. in the bell choir room at the church. If you are in 4th grade through high school, you are eligible to be in the Kids Ring! bell choir. We will rehearse each Sunday afternoon at 4:30 p.m., and then have pizza after the rehearsals. We have lots of fun and ring joyfully for the Lord. We perform every other month on the third Sunday. Our first performance will be October 21st at the 11:00 a.m. service.

If you are interested in joining, please email me at joanne@palmcitypres.org. I am looking forward to seeing you and ringing with you.

Ringingly yours, Miss Joanne hosting a prayer breakfast next month (October). It will be an exciting mix of food, prayer, and hearing inspiring stories.

Three of our Classics of Christian Spirituality readings focused on prayer. John Calvin gave us practical teaching on how to pray. Jonathan Edwards enticed us with the possibility of sweet communion with the Lord. And, Bounds urged us to pray with our whole self.

Next month our sermon series will address some unusual aspects of prayer. One sermon will be about how to pray your longing. How do you pour out the deep desires of your heart to God? Another will be about praying your frustration with how the world is.

We are talking a lot about prayer. But are we praying? What makes us a praying church is your prayer. How much time do you set aside for intentional prayer? How is that working for you? If you are not satisfied with your practice of prayer—or you are not satisfied with your life generally—what are you going to do about it?

Bounds taught one of his sons the power of prayer by example. Bounds had been invited to preach at a church in Chicago. It was a series of evangelistic meetings. He felt God wanted him to go, but he did not have the money for the trip. He packed his bags and took his son along. They got on the train, and the conductor recognized him. He said, “Rev. Bounds, you don’t have enough money for your fare. I’ll have to put you out along the way.” Bounds said, “Well, take us as far as this will pay.” The conductor said, “But I’ll have to put you out in a field somewhere.” Bounds said, “That’s alright. The Lord will provide.” (Bounds never had had much money and never cared to. He trusted the Lord for his needs.) His son was worried. A while later the conductor came in and said, “A man in the next car saw you get on board. He recognized you. He said he wanted to pay for your ticket. He’s paid for you both all the way to Chicago.”

Prayer changes things. Prayer is power.

ECO News:

Presbytery

ECO’s Presbytery of Florida will meet September 28-29 at Crossbridge Church in Miami Springs. It features a Friday evening, Saturday morning format. You do not have to be a commissioner, or even an elder, to attend as a guest.

Barbara Brice, our presbytery moderator, has sent this: “Over the two day Gathering, we will worship together, hear thought-provoking teaching, listen to an open panel discussion, fellowship over food, and participate in small groups. Our guest preacher/teacher is Dr. Emmett G. Price III. Dr. Price is Professor of Worship, Church & Culture; Dean of Chapel; and Executive Director, Institute for the Study of the Black Christian Experience at Gordon-Conwell Theological Seminary. An ordained minister, Dr. Price serves as Founding Pastor of Community of Love Christian Fellowship (Allston, MA). Dr. Price is a well-regarded scholar, educator and public speaker, who has the unique ability to capture the hearts and minds of the most diverse and versatile audiences with his compassionate sense of humor, his amicable intellect, and his quick wit.”

ECO National Gathering

ECO’s National Gathering will be January 28-31, 2019, at First Presbyterian Church in Colorado Springs, Colorado. Pastor David is registered and will be sending daily updates. An ECO National Gathering, though, is a joyful event like no other. Everyone should experience one. You do not have to be a commissioner or elder to attend. For more information, visit <https://econationalgathering.org/>

The theme this year is LOCALLY GROWN. Each church is uniquely situated for mission. ECO encourages churches to flourish where they are planted. Rather than fit every church into a one-size-fits-all mold, ECO asks each church to adapt and thrive in its environment.

YOUTH NEWS,

Sept. 2018

-Jason Pridmore

Welcome Back, Everyone!!!

Welcome back from summer break and back to a new school year!

We have had a very full summer, as you may have noticed: Sun-Up / Sun-Down, beach trips, pool parties, Puerto Rico Mission Trip, Camp Surf, etc. I hope your summer was restful and invigorating, all at the same time.

As we come back to our regular programming, I want to bring everyone up to speed on some changes that we have made, as well as bring attention to some of our upcoming events.

First, we made a decision to move middle school youth group to Wednesday nights, starting August 22, 5:30-7pm.

This change is a departure from the after-school program that has run here for some time, but not without good intention. As we still desire our youth programs to serve as an outreach to those friends and fellow students who may not have a church home, we also want to be more intentional about serving those students who call Palm City Presbyterian Church their home church. Our time change will hopefully serve to express that desire as we become more of an intentional gathering of youth with a specific Christ-centered objective, and we become less of an after-school “hang out.” Our other motivation for this change is so we, as a church, might begin to create a new culture of family-focused midweek ministry. In addition to the middle school youth program, PCPC currently is enjoying a highly attended Wednesday evening class taught by Pastor David (Classics of Christian Spirituality). This class is running through September with plans of a new study starting up in October. Our vision is for Wednesday nights to become a midweek spiritual refresher/re-energizer for the whole family. We are working on a children’s component, but would really like to see our people come together with their families for a mid-week meal or time of worship and fellowship, and then split off into their separate programs or classes. We hope you all will participate in these offerings. Sundays are just not enough.

Our high school youth program has started back up on Sundays, 6pm-8pm. We will continue to meet most Sunday evenings. We will be encouraging our high school and college students to join their families on Wednesday nights, as we hope to garner them as mentors and youth group leaders for our middle school students.

In His service and yours,
Jason Pridmore

Our current study, The Greatest, is about the greatest commandment: love the Lord and love your neighbor (Matthew 22:34-40). We are taking a look at how sometimes following God feels a little complicated with so many “rules” to remember, prayers to pray, and guidelines for how we’re supposed to live. But Jesus kept faith simple, and we’re finding out it's really all about doing one thing — the GREATEST thing. Students, join the conversation Sundays or Wednesdays at youth group; if you’re a parent, partner with youth ministries by signing up for our emails so we can include you in on the discussions we have and maybe even facilitate some for your family. Rock the Universe: September 7-9, 2018 Florida's Biggest Christian Music Festival

Our youth groups will be attending the annual Christian music festival at Universal Studios, Rock the Universe, September 7-9. This trip will be an overnight (2 night) adventure that is as fun as it is faith building. This concert sells out every year. If you are or have a student in middle school or high school (or college) and you are interested in attending this weekend, contact Jason Pridmore (youth director) ASAP -- there might still be some tickets left. Text/call 714-809-5065 or email jason@palmcitypres.org.

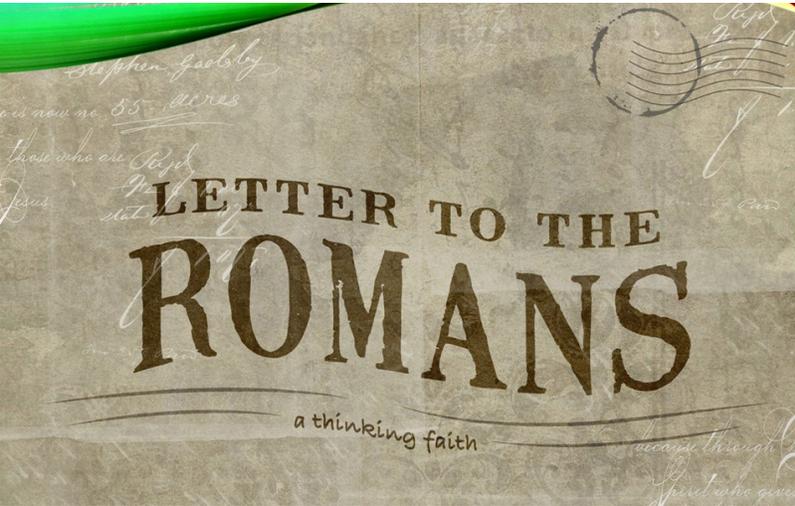

“Always Ready” Youth Conference

Hosted by: LIGONIER MINISTRIES

“Christians must always be ready to give an answer for the hope that is within us (1 Peter 3:15–16). We cannot do this, however, unless we can explain and defend the core biblical truths of salvation that describe our hope.” Mark your calendar for September 15, 2018, and join us in Sanford, FL for a one-day apologetics youth conference designed “to help you better understand and communicate core Christian truths.” This year’s theme will focus on “the exclusivity of Christ and how we can communicate the gospel to our culture.” This one-day event is designed for Christians ages 12-18 and will be held at Saint Andrew’s Chapel. Lunch will be provided. Cost for the conference (and lunch) is $15. Become better prepared to talk about your faith with your non-Christian friends. Sign up with Jason by Sept 7. Text or call (714) 809-5065. (For conference details, go to <https://ligonier.brushfire.com/rbc-youth-conference>.)

If you don’t follow us on Facebook or Instagram, or get REMIND text messages, or receive our emails — you should!

Bible Study and Sunday School -Brad Klostreich

What Is Reformed Theology?

Men's Bible Study:

Thursday mornings at 6:30 a.m. in Langill Hall beginning September 6th.

We will be taking an expository approach to the book of Romans. No other book in the Bible has had a greater impact on the Reformation and the Protestant Church. This is Paul's greatest, fullest, most comprehensive statement of the gospel. Its truths are like coiled springs; once loosed, they leap through the mind and heart to fill one's horizon and shape one's life. Calvin, Luther, and Wesley all came to faith through the truths of this book.

Adult Sunday School:

Sunday mornings at 9:45 a.m. in Langill Hall beginning September 2nd.

This fall we will focus on the question "What is Reformed Theology?" Our 12-week study will be an exploration of the 5 Doctrines of Grace along with the 5 Solas of the Reformation that form the backbone of what we believe in our doctrine and ECO's Essential Tenets.

The Story In-Between

Understanding the Time Between Testaments

Wednesday Night Family Night:

Wednesday nights at 6:00 p.m. beginning October 3rd.

This class dovetails with Pastor David's successful "Classics of Christian Spirituality" and will be a 5-week study of the Intertestamental Period entitled "The Story In-Between." While many call this time frame the "years of silence," it's far from quiet historically and theologically. It's during this time frame that the Pharisees and Sadducees are developed, as well as the Doctrine of the Resurrection of the Body that finds its fuller form. Understanding the setting to which Jesus comes is essential to understanding His ministry and teaching amongst us.
